ORGANIZATION AND STRUCTURE OF THE COURT

THE UNITED STATES COURT SYSTEM

The United States court system consists of the Supreme Court of the United States, twelve circuit courts of appeals, the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, the Court of International Trade, the United States Court of Federal Claims, the United States Tax Court, 94 district courts, and the bankruptcy courts. The Supreme Court was established by the Constitution. All other courts were created by Congress based upon authority granted by the Constitution, and their organization and jurisdiction are described in Title 28 of the United States Code.

Every state has at least one district court, and many states are divided into two, three, or four districts, each having a district court. The State of New York is divided into four districts (Northern, Southern, Eastern, and Western). The number of active judges in a given district varies according to the volume of cases filed. Within each district, a clerk's office, a bankruptcy court, and a probation office have been established and one or more United States magistrate judges have been appointed. There is a United States Attorney's Office and a United States Marshals Office in every district, and some districts have a Federal Public Defender's Office. Large or populous districts may be divided into two or more divisions for holding court.

HISTORY AND ORGANIZATION OF THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

The United States District Court for the Western District of New York was formed in 1900. Until then, the territory of the Western District of New York was included in the Northern District of New York, which in 1900 was the largest district in the country, serving a population of 2,900,000 and spanning 46 counties. Because the Northern District had grown to that size, Congress enacted legislation designating the 17 western-most counties of New York as the Western District of New York. At the time of its establishment, approximately 1,500,000 persons lived within its boundaries. The district court for the Western District of New York currently serves a population of approximately 2,870,000.

The legislation establishing the Western District of New York designated six locations for holding court: Elmira, Buffalo, Rochester, Jamestown, Lockport, and Canandaigua. In 1948 Lockport was omitted as a place of holding court in the district because 32 years had passed since court had been held there. Although by statute five locations for holding court remain in the Western District of New York, regular sessions of the court are held only in Buffalo and Rochester.

When the district was established, only one judge was authorized by Congress. A second judge was approved and appointed in 1927. Forty years later, in 1967, a third judgeship was approved and in 1984, Congress authorized a fourth judge for the district. Currently, the district has four active and three senior judges. In addition, the district has five magistrate judges. The chief judge, one active judge, one senior judge, and two magistrate judges, are stationed in Rochester. All other judicial officers have chambers and hold court in Buffalo.

STRUCTURE OF THE COURT

District Judges and Their Staffs

Federal judges are appointed by the President of the United States with the advice and consent of the Senate. They have life tenure and can be removed from office only by impeachment. Each judge has his or her own personal staff, generally consisting of a secretary and two law clerks. In addition, one courtroom deputy and one court reporter are assigned to each active judge. Senior judges maintaining caseloads are assigned a courtroom deputy. Court reporters are appointed by the court en banc. Both courtroom deputies and court reporters are under the management of the clerk of court.

Magistrate Judges

Magistrate judges are judicial officers and are appointed by the court. Full-time magistrate judges serve for eight-year terms. Five full-time magistrate judges serve in the Western District of New York.

Magistrate judges are authorized to try any civil case pending in the district court, either jury or non-jury, and to enter judgment in the case upon the special designation of the judges of the district court and the freely-given consent of the litigants. Judges may also refer discovery matters to the magistrate judges for decision and also refer dispositive motions for their report and recommendation. Magistrate judges preside over initial court appearances in criminal cases as well as bond and detention hearings. The criminal trial jurisdiction of magistrate judges covers misdemeanors and petty offenses.

Duties of the magistrate judges in the Western District of New York include overseeing criminal intake matters such as conducting arraignments, setting bail, providing for assigned counsel, conducting preliminary hearings and detention hearings, and presiding at trial and sentencing of misdemeanor cases and petty offenses. When a civil case is filed, it is randomly assigned to a district judge and a standby magistrate judge is simultaneously selected. At some point, usually early in the proceedings, the district judge may decide to refer the case to the magistrate judge for specific pretrial matters such as issuing a schedule for discovery and motion practice, holding settlement and status conferences, and ruling on non-dispositive motions. The district judge may also refer the case to the magistrate judge for hearing and recommendation on dispositive matters. Also, the district judge can refer the case to the magistrate judge, upon consent of the parties, for all further proceedings in the case, including jury or non-jury trial and entry of judgment. In such cases, the magistrate judge's ruling is appealable directly to the United States Court of Appeals. For more specific information on jurisdiction of magistrate judges, please see 28 U.S.C. §636, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 72 and 73, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 5 and 58, Local Rules of Civil Procedure 72.1 and 72.3, and Local Rules of Criminal Procedure 58.1 and 58.2.

Clerk of Court

The Clerk is appointed by and serves at the pleasure of the court, and is considered the chief operating officer for the court. Subject to the discretion of the court, the Clerk manages a variety of non-judicial administrative functions for the district judges, the magistrate judges, the chief probation officer, and their respective staffs. These administrative duties include maintaining court records; providing courtroom support; managing jury services; and directing personnel, financial, property and procurement, and court reporter services. The Clerk is also responsible for the court budget, space management, research and evaluation, management of data collection and computer services, and other administrative services required by the court.

United States Bankruptcy Court

The United States Bankruptcy Court, by delegation from the district court, has jurisdiction over bankruptcy cases and related cases known as adversary proceedings. Practice in the bankruptcy court is governed by Title 11 of the United States Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the local rules of the district and bankruptcy courts, and sections of Title 28 of the United States Code. Copies of the local rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of New York are available in both bankruptcy court clerk's offices.

Attorney admissions to the bankruptcy court are conducted separately from attorney admissions to the district court. Admission in the district court is a prerequisite for admission to the bankruptcy court. For more information, contact the bankruptcy court clerk's office.

United States Attorney

One United States Attorney is appointed to serve each judicial district. The United States Attorney is appointed by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a term of four years. Assistant United States Attorneys within each district are appointed by the Attorney General of the United States.

The duties of the United States Attorney are to prosecute persons accused of committing violations of the laws of the United States, to prosecute or defend in civil actions brought by or against the United States, and to appear on behalf of federal officials in cases filed against them in their official capacity.

United States Marshal

The United States Marshal is appointed by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a term of four years. The duties of this office include, but are not limited to, acting on behalf of the district court as directed and executing writs, processes, and orders issued under authority of the United States. The Marshal is also responsible, under the direction of the court, for providing security for the courtrooms and all court areas.

Chief Probation Officer

The Chief Probation Officer is appointed by and serves at the pleasure of the court. The probation staff consists of probation officers, who are appointed by the court, and clerical personnel, who are appointed and subject to removal by the chief probation officer with the approval of the chief judge. It is the responsibility of the Probation Office to conduct the pre-sentence investigations for the courts and to provide supervision for the federal probationers and supervised releasees. The United States Probation Office is also responsible for the Pretrial Services program.

Federal Public Defender

The Federal Public Defender is appointed by the Second Circuit Court of Appeals for a term of four years. The role of the Federal Public Defender's office is to provide legal representation to any party who is found to be financially unable to obtain adequate counsel and who is adjudged by the court to be eligible for such legal assistance.

RULES AND GUIDELINES FOR PRACTICE

RULES, PLANS AND STANDING ORDERS

Procedures in the United States District Court for the Western District of New York are governed by the Federal Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure and the Local Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure. The court's local rules were amended most recently effective December 1, 1994, and at that time were renumbered in accordance with a uniform numbering system promulgated by the Judicial Conference of the United States. The uniform numbering system applicable to local rules parallels the numbering of the federal rules. Thus, for example, the court's local rule governing discovery is local rule 26, and the court's local rule requiring a statement of fact to accompany summary judgment motions is local rule 56.

Copies of the court's local rules are distributed to attorneys upon admission to the bar of the district court and are otherwise available on request from the clerk's office. Persons requesting copies of the local rules by mail ordinarily are required to provide the clerk's office with a self-addressed 9" x 12" envelope with the proper amount of postage affixed. Copies of the court's local rules are available on diskette for a fee of $5.00.

In addition to its local rules, the court has promulgated a variety of plans and standing orders that affect the litigation of certain types of cases before the court. The following is a list of the court's plans and relevant standing orders that are available on request from the clerk's office:

- Court Reporter Management Plan
- Criminal Justice Act Plan
- Jury Plan
- Plan for the Administration of the District Court Fund
- Amended Plan for the Disposition of Pro Se Cases in the Western District of New York
- Revised Plan for the Prompt Disposition of Criminal Cases
- Standing Order Governing Claims under the Racketeer Influenced & Corrupt Organizations Act

INDIVIDUAL JUDGES' GUIDELINES

In addition to the local rules, plans and standing orders that govern practice in the district, several of the judges and magistrate judges have developed practice guidelines. Currently, Judges Skretny and Telesca have individual guidelines. However, counsel are advised to contact the clerk's office to determine whether a particular judge or magistrate judge has individual guidelines or requirements with respect to certain matters. Copies of guidelines are available from the judges' chambers and the clerk's office.

CLERK'S OFFICE GENERAL PROCEDURES

MISSION OF THE CLERK'S OFFICE

The mission of the clerk's office is to provide the necessary operational, administrative, and systems support and structure to allow the court to carry out its judicial responsibilities effectively and efficiently in the Western District of New York. To achieve this end result, the clerk's office is dedicated to rendering effective and courteous service to all judicial officers and their staff members, the members of the bar, the public, litigants, jurors, other courts, and related government agencies. In support of this mission, the clerk's office provides services in the areas of administration, operations and automation.

MAINTENANCE OF FILES AND DOCKETS

All cases are numbered with a two-digit indicator of the year the case was filed followed by "cv" if the case is a civil case or "cr" if the case is a criminal matter, followed by a 4-digit sequential case number, followed by a letter or letters indicating the identity of the assigned judge, and, in parentheses, a letter or letters identifying the assigned magistrate judge. All open cases and cases on appeal are maintained in the clerk's office. Closed cases are kept in the clerk's office for up to three years after the final disposition of the case, after which they are transferred to the Federal Records Center in Lee's Summit, Missouri.

Files are maintained at the Federal Records Center for twenty years. After twenty years of storage, some files are then forwarded to the National Archives and others are destroyed. The Federal Records Center is open to the public to review court records and to obtain copies of entire case files or specific documents. Information on the Federal Records Center is available in both clerk's offices.

DOCKETING RECORDS

All case records of the court are now maintained on an automated system. Automated docketing of newly filed civil cases began on November 1, 1990. Automated docketing of events in pending civil cases began on January 1, 1991. Docketing information for civil cases filed before November 1, 1990 is partially contained on paper docket sheets maintained in the clerk's office. If a computerized docket record starts with a document number other than "1", previous filings are contained on a paper docket.

Automated docketing of newly filed criminal cases began on August 1, 1993. Criminal cases pending before August 1993 have never been docketed on the computer and are still maintained on paper dockets.

Both of the clerk's offices have a computer terminal available to the public for use in searching docket records. If you need to review a paper docket, please ask the staff for assistance. Questions about customized searches and fees therefor should be directed to the Systems Manager in Buffalo.

TELEPHONE INQUIRIES

The clerk's office staff can provide you with information about the status of pending cases. If you call, please have the case number ready.

PUBLIC ACCESS TO COURT ELECTRONIC RECORDS (PACER)

The court's dial-in on line service allows you to retrieve electronic case summaries and docket information using your computer or terminal and a modem. The service is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The cost is billed at $0.60 per minute. Also, if you have access to the Internet, you can reach the PACER system using your browser (ex. Netscape's Navigator or Microsoft's Internet Explorer). Simply enter <http://pacer.nywd.uscourts.gov> into your browser's "Location" or "Address" window and press enter. You will be brought to a screen that will ask for the necessary login information. The information on this Web PACER system is identical to that available on the dial-up PACER system. Cost for this type of access is billed at $0.07 per page. Full explanation of the billing process is available at the PACER Service Center's web site <http://pacer.psc.uscourts.gov>. For further information or to sign up for the service, contact the PACER Service Center at 1-800-676-6856.

INTERNET ACCESS

The court has an internet web site that can be accessed at www.nywd.uscourts.gov.

REQUESTS FOR PHOTOCOPIES

Persons requesting photocopies must complete a photocopy request form. The form is available in both clerks offices and on the court's website at www.nywd.uscourts.gov. The fee for clerk's office staff photocopying of records is 50¢ per page. Fees for copy work must be paid in advance and requests will be processed as quickly as possible. You may be asked to return to pick up copy work, or it can be mailed to you.

ATTORNEY ADMISSIONS

Applications for attorney admissions are available in the clerk's offices. Prerequisites for admission are set forth in Local Rule of Civil Procedure 83.1. Admission days vary, so please contact the clerk's office for specific dates and times. The fee for admission is $80.00. The fee for pro hac vice admission is $30.00.

CHANGES OF ADDRESS

The clerk's office maintains records of all attorneys admitted to practice in the district. If an attorney has a change of name, firm affiliation, office address or telephone number, he or she must notify the clerk within thirty days of the change. If counsel is changing firm affiliation, it is requested that the clerk's office be notified of those pending cases on which he or she will continue to be counsel of record. This permits accurate record keeping and avoids unnecessary mailings. Your cooperation is appreciated.

TRANSCRIPTS

Orders for production of transcripts should be directed to the official court reporter assigned to the appropriate judge. Orders for production of transcripts produced by electronic sound recording in the magistrate judges' courts should be directed to the appropriate magistrate judge's courtroom deputy.

Copies of transcripts on file with the clerk of court are available for public inspection in the clerk's office. Members of the public may obtain a copy of a transcript on file with the clerk of court and request the clerk of court to certify it as a true copy. A copying fee of 50¢ per page will apply to all such requests.

GENERAL CIVIL CASE PROCEDURES

FILING A COMPLAINT

To commence a civil action in federal court requires a complaint with an original signature, an original summons plus a copy for each defendant to be served, a completed civil cover sheet and the $150.00 filing fee. Please refer to Local Rules of Civil Procedure 5.1 and 5.2 for more detailed information.

SERVICE OF THE SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT

Service of the summons and complaint is governed by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4. Forms to request waiver of service pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d) are available in the clerk's office.

SERVICE OF PROCESS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES

The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provide for service of process by mail on foreign states. However, the State Department has advised the judiciary that a number of countries object to service by mail. Accordingly, the Administrative Office of the United States Courts has directed clerks of court to refrain from effecting service by mail addressed to the following countries: China, Czech Republic, Egypt, Germany, Greece, Republic of South Korea, Latvia, Luxembourg, Norway, Poland, Slovak Republic, Switzerland, Turkey, Venezuela, Kuwait and the Russian Federation. Additional information about service of process in foreign countries can be obtained on the Department of State web site at http://travel.state.gov/judicial_assistance.html

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

A demand for a trial by jury must be made in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 38 and Local Rule of Civil Procedure 38.

FILING OF PAPERS

All original papers to be filed must be presented to the clerk's office for filing. Do not send papers directly to the judge's chambers as this will delay filing and docketing.

Filing by facsimile or other electronic means is not permitted.

Papers presented for filing should be on 8½" x 11" paper with 2 holes punched at the top. Please refer to Local Rule of Civil Procedure 5.2(a). A hole punch is available at the counter in both clerk's offices for use by the public.

REMOVAL OF CASES FROM STATE COURT

Parties seeking to remove an action from state to federal court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1441 must file with the clerk's office the petition or notice of removal which shall include a copy of the summons and complaint filed in state court. The removal papers must bear the same caption as the state court matter and must be accompanied by a completed civil cover sheet and a $150.00 filing fee.

COURTESY COPIES

Most of the court's judges and magistrate judges do not accept courtesy copies of papers filed with the clerk. Judges Skretny and Siragusa require courtesy copies of all documents and papers filed with the clerk's office. Judge Arcara requires courtesy copies of all papers for those matters which are scheduled on his calendar. Judge Elfvin appreciates courtesy copies of legal memoranda and briefs. Magistrate Judges Feldman and Bauer require courtesy copies of contested motions.

DISCOVERY

Discovery in civil cases in the Western District of New York is governed by Local Rule of Civil Procedure 26 as well as the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Subpoenas may be issued by counsel pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(a)(3). Subpoenas may also be issued by the clerk's office.

Discovery materials are not to be filed with the court except in pro se cases or when otherwise ordered by the court. See Local Rule of Civil Procedure 7.1(a)(1).

MOTION PRACTICE

Local Rule of Civil Procedure 7.1(c) sets forth the timing of filing and serving motion papers in civil cases.

Motions for relief under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12, 56 or 65(a) and responding papers must be accompanied by an affidavit and a memorandum of law. See Local Rule of Civil Procedure 7.1(e). Supporting and opposing memoranda of law must be no longer than twenty-five pages and reply briefs must be no longer than ten pages without prior court approval. Applications for approval to exceed the established page limits must be made by letter to the court with copies to all counsel. See Local Rule of Civil Procedure 7.1(f).

Discovery motions must be accompanied by moving counsel's affidavit indicating that sincere attempts to resolve the discovery dispute have been made. Pursuant to Local Rule of Civil Procedure 37, the affidavit must detail the times and places of the parties' meetings, correspondence or discussions concerning the discovery dispute and the names of all parties participating therein.

Parties seeking a temporary restraining order before Judges Arcara and Skretny are advised that they have issued guidelines for requesting a temporary restraining order. Copies are available in the clerk's office or from chambers.

MOTION HEARING DAYS

As of this manual's publication, the following are the judges' and magistrate judges' motion days:

- Judge Larimer hears civil and criminal motions daily. Upon the filing of a motion, the Court will issue a scheduling order for briefing. The Court will determine whether oral argument is necessary and will advise the parties accordingly.
- Judge Arcara hears motions daily. The motion date will be determined by the Court upon receipt of the motion papers. The Court will send a notice to the parties indicating the motion return date.
- Judge Skretny hears civil and criminal motions daily. Counsel must contact Judge Skretny's courtroom deputy for scheduling prior to filing motions.
- Judge Siragusa hears civil motions at 3:00 p.m. on Thursday and criminal motions daily. Once a motion is filed, the Judge will set a return date and issue a motion scheduling order.
- Judge Curtin hears motions on Mondays and Wednesdays. Please contact chambers to schedule dates.
- Judge Elfvin hears criminal motions on Fridays at 1:00 p.m. and civil motions on Fridays at 3:00 p.m.
- Judge Telesca hears civil motions at 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday and Thursday of the first full three weeks of each month. Criminal motions are heard daily.
- Magistrate Judge Foschio hears criminal motions on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Contact chambers to schedule dates. Civil motions are heard at the court's discretion - parties are directed to file their motions with the notation "Oral argument to be determined by the court".
- Magistrate Judge Scott hears civil and criminal motions daily.
- Magistrate Judge Feldman hears motions daily. Leave the argument date blank and you will be notified.
- Magistrate Judge Bauer hears motions daily. Contact chambers to schedule dates.
- Magistrate Judge Schroeder hears motions daily.

TRIAL

Trial dates are set by the assigned judge or magistrate judge. Your attention is directed to Local Rule of Civil Procedure 16.1 which details the filing of pretrial materials.

Subpoenas in civil and criminal cases are issued in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 and Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 17, respectively.

Pursuant to Local Rule of Civil Procedure 16.1, all exhibits are to be premarked by counsel. Ordinarily exhibits are not filed with the court. Immediately after a case is submitted to the trier of fact, all exhibits received into evidence are to be delivered to the courtroom deputy. Once the time for appeal has expired, the parties will be allowed thirty days to claim the exhibits.

Unclaimed exhibits may be destroyed. For further information, see Local Rule of Civil Procedure 79.

The court has an evidence presentation system that is available for use at trial upon request of a party. For more information on the evidence presentation system, please contact the clerk's office.

REQUESTS FOR ADJOURNMENT

The clerk's office cannot change court dates. Therefore, all requests to adjourn motion or trial dates must be made to the assigned judge or magistrate judge and must comply with his or her individual practice guidelines, if any. Pursuant to Local Rule of Civil Procedure 16.1(o), the court may direct that a request to postpone a trial date be signed by both the attorney and the party making the request.

Requests to extend scheduling deadlines also must be made to the assigned judge or magistrate judge and must comply with his or her individual practice guidelines, if any. Note that Local Rule of Civil Procedure 16.1(e) provides that no extensions of the discovery period will be granted, except for good cause shown in writing.

BILLS OF COST

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54 and 28 U.S.C. §1920, ordinarily a prevailing party is entitled to an award of costs. Local Rule of Civil Procedure 54 requires a verified bill of costs to be filed within thirty days after entry of final judgment. Bill of cost forms are available on request from the clerk's office. Not all expenses may be taxed as costs. Therefore, in preparing an application for costs, careful attention should be paid to the provisions of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54 and 28 U.S.C. §§1821 and 1920.

REVIEW AND APPEAL OF MAGISTRATE JUDGES' ACTIONS

Review of a magistrate judge's orders and report and recommendations is governed by 28 U.S.C. section 636(b) (1) and Local Rule of Civil Procedure 72.3. In accordance with these provisions, written objections must be filed within ten days of being served with a magistrate judge's order or report and recommendation.

APPEALS

Pursuant to Fed. R. App. P. 4(a), a notice of appeal must be filed with the clerk's office within 30 days of the entry of judgment or the order appealed from (the government has 60 days to file). The fee for filing a notice of appeal is $105.00.

GENERAL CRIMINAL CASE PROCEDURES

SPEEDY TRIAL ACT

Proceedings in criminal cases are subject to the provisions of the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. §3161 et seq. Reference is also directed to the court's Revised Plan for the Prompt Disposition of Criminal Cases.

MISDEMEANOR AND PETTY OFFENSE MATTERS

Misdemeanor and petty offense cases are assigned to the magistrate judges pursuant to Local Rule of Criminal Procedure 58.1, and may be tried by the magistrate judge upon consent of the defendant in accordance with Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 58(b)(3).

ASSIGNMENT OF COUNSEL

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3006A, a defendant who is financially unable to obtain counsel will be assigned an attorney. Assignment of counsel in criminal cases is governed by the court's Criminal Justice Act Plan dated April 3, 1998. Assignments may be made to the Federal Public Defender or to members of the court's CJA Panel.

The Judicial Conference of the United States authorizes payment to assigned defense counsel for services performed after May 1, 2002 at the rate of $90.00 per hour for in court and out of court time. Vouchers for payment are available in the clerk's office.

SENTENCING

Sentencing in criminal cases is governed by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32 and the United States Sentencing Guidelines. Additionally, the court has issued sentencing procedures that the Probation Department provides to defendants facing sentencing. Furthermore, Judges Arcara and Skretny have issued individual sentencing guidelines entitled "Procedure to Assist Practitioners Before U.S. District Court Judges Richard J. Arcara and William M. Skretny in Proceedings Under the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984 in the Western District of New York effective 8/1/96". Copies are available in the clerk's office or from chambers.

APPEALS

Pursuant to Fed. R. App. P. 4(b), a notice of appeal must be filed within 10 days after entry of judgment or the order appealed from. The fee for filing a notice of appeal is $105.00.

PROCEDURES IN PRO SE CASES

PRO SE STAFF ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

The court has a pro se department that assists the court in the management of pro se cases and monitors the progress of these cases through the court. Additionally, the pro se department acts as liaison between the court and pro se litigants and their counsel.

PLAN FOR THE DISPOSITION OF PRO SE CASES

Effective October 1, 1996, the court adopted its Amended Plan for the Disposition of Pro Se Cases in the Western District of New York. The Amended Plan sets forth the method by which incoming pro se cases are assigned to judges and magistrate judges, establishes case tracking responsibilities, provides for streamlined management of pro se cases, and otherwise defines the role of the pro se department. Copies of the Amended Plan are available in the clerk's office.

PRO BONO ASSIGNMENTS AND THE DISTRICT COURT FUND

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1915(e), it is within the court's discretion to appoint counsel to assist indigent litigants in civil cases. In the Western District of New York, pro bono counsel is most commonly appointed in prisoner civil rights actions brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983. The court occasionally appoints counsel in employment discrimination cases, matters appealing the denial of social security benefits, and habeas corpus proceedings. The Local Rules of Civil Procedure require every member of the bar of this Court to be available upon the Court's request for such appointments. See Local Rule 83.1(g).

The Court's pro se staff attorneys can provide procedural assistance to pro se litigants and appointed counsel. In addition, the Court can provide pro se litigants and appointed counsel with the Clerk's Office Guidelines for Pro Se Litigants and a 1997 Manual for Inmate Litigants which was prepared by Prisoner's Legal Services of New York, Inc. Furthermore, the clerk's office and the pro se office have some forms available upon request to assist pro se litigants in presenting their claims to the Court.

Attorneys assigned to habeas corpus cases are reimbursed pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3006A(d). In civil rights actions, attorney's fees are available to prevailing plaintiffs pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1988 and 42 U.S.C. §2000e-5(k). To assist pro bono counsel in meeting the economic burdens incurred in representing indigent litigants, the court has established the District Court Fund from which counsel may seek reimbursement of certain out-of-pocket expenses up to $1,200 per client represented. The court's Guidelines Governing Reimbursement from the District Court Fund of Expenses Incurred by Court Appointed Counsel and expense reimbursement vouchers are available in the clerk's office.

Attorneys who wish to volunteer for pro bono assignments should contact the pro se office at (716) 551-5759 for more information. In addition, all attorneys must immediately complete and return the Pro Bono Notice which the Court will send them from time to time.
